THE KIND OF STRENGTH THAT REFUSES TO BREAK...

BAND BAAJA BITIYA

Goel TMT launched Band Baaja Bitiya, an emotional digital film that highlights the strong bond between a father and daughter. The story reflects the brand's values of strength, trust, and reliability while positioning Goel TMT as a symbol of strength in both structures and relationships.

OUR OBJECTIVE

- Build emotional connection between the brand and audience through storytelling.
- Reinforce Goel TMT's brand positioning around strength and support.
- Increase digital visibility and engagement for the advertisement and create cultural conversations around father-daughter relationships.
- Drive organic reach and awareness using strategic digital amplification.

OUR STRATEGY

- Leveraged emotional storytelling aligned with the brand's strength positioning.
- Created multi platform amplification to maximize reach across audience segments.
- Platform specific creatives derived from the ad were developed to enhance shareability and maintain visual consistency across channels.
- Combined entertainment, culture, and marketing ecosystems for wider market reach

PREMIUM MEME & SEEDING PROFILES

Premium meme profiles and seeding profiles were used to create buzz & organic engagement around the campaign. These profiles shared relatable and humorous content connected to the campaign narrative, helping the message spread quickly among a large and highly active audience.

DIGITAL WIRES PROFILES

Pop culture profiles and digital media portals helped amplify the campaign by linking it with trending conversations and entertainment content. This ensured wider visibility and helped the campaign reach audiences who actively follow viral and cultural trends online.

MARKETING PROFILES

Marketing and advertising focused profiles were leveraged to highlight the campaign from an industry perspective. These pages discussed the creative strategy, brand communication, and campaign execution, helping it gain attention within the marketing and professional community.

CITY PROFILES

City based profiles enabled localized amplification by connecting the campaign with regional audiences and communities. This improved cultural relatability and encouraged higher engagement through familiar, city-centric digital spaces.

X PROFILES

X profiles enabled real time conversations and amplified audience reactions around the campaign. Through reposts and hashtag led discussions, the campaign gained visibility within fast moving digital conversations.

IG CREATORS

Instagram creators also shared the Goel TMT video on their profiles, helping the narrative reach a wider and more engaged audience. By leveraging their personal connection with followers, the creators amplified the emotional storytelling of the film and drove stronger engagement, conversations, and organic visibility for the campaign on Instagram.

Sad part is, only father thought about bringing back his own daughter from there. Other family members didn't support him 😞

If more parents think like him , the daughters wouldn't have to stay just to maintain the IJJAT and then eventually lose themselves or their life
